Get the Gist - Summarising

Purpose of the ‘Get the Gist’ strategy:

‘Get the Gist’ (Cunningham, 1982) is an acronym for Generating Interactions between Schemata and Texts. It is summarising strategy. Effective summarising leads to an increase in student learning. Summarising requires students to focus on the main ideas of a text and to decide what is important without omitting key ideas. The ability to summarise has significant benefits for comprehending and ultimately retaining and recalling information. Teaching students summarising strategies, like ‘Get the Gist’, helps them learn to synthesise information, a higher-order thinking skill which includes analysing information and identifying key concepts.

Explicitly teaching ‘Get the Gist’:

Step 1
Choose an informational paragraph from a science, history, etc. textbook. Scan the text pulling out any key ideas from the text features. Read the text. (Pick a textbook piece that contains some trivia, as well as several ideas). Put the text on the overhead or board. Read it aloud to students and demonstrate deleting the trivia, putting a line through the unnecessary text.

Step 2
Continue reading and demonstrate picking out the who, what, when, where, why of the paragraph and related important information.

Step 3
Demonstrate pulling together the above information into a 10/20-word ‘gist’ or summary.

Step 4
In pairs, guide students in completing a ‘Gist’ sheet or ‘Sum It Up’* sheet. Support students in creating summaries until they can do them independently. The number of words in a ‘gist’ summary can vary.

* Sum It Up is a variation on this strategy. The teacher tells the students to imagine they are going to place an ad in the local newspaper on a specific topic and that each word they use will cost 10 cent. They only have €2.00 to spend, so they can only use 20 words in their summary (or €3.50 and 35 words, etc). An example of this strategy is in this resource.

 Students’ summarising skills can be further developed by using other NBSS strategy resources e.g. Somebody Wanted But So, Summarising Maps, 5-4-3-2-1, Exit Slips.
Get the Gist

The Get the Gist strategy will help you find the main idea as you have to limit the number of words used and so focus on the important ideas rather than on details.

   This paragraph is mainly about...
4. What important pieces of information are linked to the ‘who’ or ‘what’?
   •
5. Put together the answers above and tell the main idea in 10 words or less!

Read the entire selection (paragraph, section, handout, etc.) and, as you read list the main idea words on the ‘Sum It Up’ sheet. Then write a summary of what you’ve read using as many of the main idea words as possible. Now imagine you have €2.00 and that each word you use is worth ten cent. So…you’ll ‘Sum It Up’ in 20 words.

Title of Section: ______________________________

(Avoid using is/was. You can find more strong verbs by using the thesaurus in Word to look up the verbs above.)

3. Write your summary paragraph below. Start by copying your A+B+C topic sentence. Then turn each fact from the box above into a sentence. If helpful, add on explain sentences.
